

Northeastern University
NULab for Texts, Maps, and Networks

“CLIMATE CHANGE/ CRISIS/CREATIVITY” CONFERENCE

February 22, 2019

Northeastern University

Raytheon Amphitheater

9am–5pm

Keynote Address:

“Climate Change and Pedagogy: Experiential and Embodied Learning for the Academy and Beyond”

Bethany Wiggin, University of Pennsylvania

Featuring Lightning Talks from Northeastern Faculty and Staff

Daniel Aldrich, Political Science, Public Policy and Urban Affairs

Shalanda H. Baker, Law, Public Policy and Urban Affairs

Brian Helmuth, Marine and Environmental Sciences

Laura Kuhl, Public Policy and Urban Affairs and International Affairs

Kyla Van Maanen, Global Resilience Institute

Dietmar Offenhuber, Art + Design and Public Policy and Urban Affairs

Jennie Stephens, Public Policy and Urban Affairs, Dean’s Professor of Sustainability Science and Policy

John Wihbey, Journalism

Sara Wylie, Sociology and Health Science

Global Resilience Institute
at Northeastern University

Northeastern University
Humanities Center

Northeastern University
School of Public Policy & Urban Affairs

Talks by artists whose work engages with climate change:

Carolina Aragón, Assistant Professor of Landscape Architecture, UMass Amherst
Geoffrey Hudson, Composer, creator of “A Passion for the Planet”
Sarah Kanouse, Art + Design, Northeastern University

Lunch will be provided and the conference will also include a hands-on workshop session.

This conference is free and open to the public, but registration is required. RSVP at:

tinyurl.com/NULabCCCCC

For more information:

web.northeastern.edu/nulab/event/climate-change-crisis-creativity/