

Northeastern University
NULab for Texts, Maps, and Networks

DIGITAL PUBLIC HUMANITIES PANEL

Thursday, March 21, 2:00 - 4:00 PM
909 Renaissance Park

Join us for an exciting panel featuring four scholars who work in the digital public humanities.

"Mobilized Humanities: The Case of Torn Apart / Separados"

Alex Gil, Columbia University Libraries

Roopika Risam, Salem State University

"Monuments, Media & Museums: Making Digital Spaces for Practice"

Caroline Klibanoff, MIT Museum

"Breaking Bandersnatch: Networked Publics, Interactive Storytelling, and Augmented Realities"

Jim McGrath, Brown University

This event is free and open to the public, but if you are not a member of the Northeastern community, please email Sarah Connell (sa.connell@northeastern.edu) to RSVP.

Co-sponsored with the Northeastern University
Humanities Center.

For more information, visit:

<https://web.northeastern.edu/nulab/event/digital-public-humanities/>

Northeastern University
Humanities Center

