NULab for Texts, Maps, and Networks

NU Books from the NULab

Tuesday, November 19th, 4:30-6pm

Alumni Center, 716 Columbus Avenue

Please join us for a discussion and reception featuring NULab faculty members who have recently published books. We will have a series of brief presentations and a discussion, followed by a reception. This event will feature an exciting group of books and authors:

- Moya Bailey, Assistant Professor of Cultures, Societies, and Global Studies and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies: #HashtagActivism: Networks of Race and Gender Justice, co-authored with Sarah J. Jackson and Brooke Foucault Welles
- Julia Flanders, NULab Interim Co-director and Professor of the Practice in English: The Shape of Data in Digital Humanities: Modeling Texts and Text-based Resources, co-edited with Fotis Jannidis
- David Lazer, NULab Co-Director and University Distinguished Professor of Political Science and Computer and Information Sciences: Politics with the People: Building a Directly Representative Democracy, co-authored with Michael A. Neblo and Kevin M. Esterling
- Daniel T. O'Brien, Associate Professor of Public Policy and Urban Affairs and Criminology and Criminal Justice; Co-Director, Boston Area Research Initiative: The Urban Commons: How Data and Technology Can Rebuild Our Communities
- John P. Wihbey, Assistant Professor of Journalism and Media Innovation: The Social Fact: News and Knowledge in a Networked World

This event is free and open to the public, but if you are not a member of the Northeastern community, please email Sarah Connell (sa.connell@northeastern.edu) to RSVP.
